What can your company or organization learn from a big, green, furry mascot?

As it turns out...everything!

Tom Burgoyne has been entertaining fans as the Phillie Phanatic for over 30 years. From underneath the fur, Tom has a unique perspective on what has made the Phillie Phanatic the most successful mascots in sports. Based on the popular book, Pheel the Love-How the Most Powerful Force in the Universe Builds Great Companies, Tom shares his stories and offers that love can make your business number #1, too! In this keynote speech:

- ✓ You'll learn how your organization can inspire fierce loyalty from your customers and fans just like the Phillie Phanatic
- ✓ You'll see the ways in which Phanatic-inspired principles like "The Big Smooch" are already being applied by some of the most successful companies in the world
- ✓ You'll hear funny and inspiring stories from a career that has spanned four decades

These lessons and insights are presented in a light-hearted yet powerful talk from the man who has entertained millions of fans in Philadelphia and around the world.

ARE YOUR AUDIENCES PHEELING THE LOVE?

"You just unleashed something so powerful—it's such a positive force for the world." —Keynote Attendee
